

Pappas Telecasting Companies is using public airwaves, free of charge, and then giving preferential treatment to certain political candidates. This is against the common good for a corporate headquarters to attempt to sway a local election. This is in violation of their legal obligation to serve the public interest.

Please register my complaint and take seriously this offense when deciding whether or not to renew their license.